Canada's Heroes Close the Gap; Casualties Very Heavy, But Enemy's Fierce Onslaught Is Checked; Mourning the Loss of Her Sons, Canada Glories in Their Achievement

Last week in the war was Canada's week. It also was an awakening week for the Canadian people. While the war has been in progress for almost nine months and Canadians have been enlisted and training and messages have been received from those who were at the front, Canada had not really realized war. While casualties were reported in the press, showing that our Canadian boys were now and then paying the war price, these isolated cases stirred the great house as little as a report of some accident on the sporting field. But Canada's men have at last been compelled to stand the brunt of one of the most desperate offensive movements of the enemy during the course of the war. Officers and men in thousands have paid the toll. How met they the bitter attack of seasoned troops, their untried methods of attack, were before duplicated in the history of warfare? England's press, yesterday the press of the whole world, today tells the story of Canadian tenacity; unflinching, unswayed, the boys who represent Canada were the stone wall against which the fierce attack spent itself and as a proud reality lent the ways that would hurt themselves upon the shore, Canada's boys have the limit of the fierce assault and gave to the shaken line a breathing space in which to recover and the unexpected nature of the thrust. We are proud of our boys this day and well we may.

A Timely Red Cross Appeal

Our country, which is Allied, is waging a great war for justice, for the protection of small nations in the enjoyment of their rights, for continued and growing freedom, and for the maintenance of its pledged word of honor. Our best troops and our best officers are being sent. Lives are being lost by the thousands. Canada's first contingent is now in the thick of it. Some will fall sick; many may be wounded; some will pay the last full measure of devotion to their country and its cause.

The Red Cross Society exists to succor the sick and wounded in war. It needs more money to provide more beds at hospital in Great Britain and France; it needs more money to pay more Red Cross Nurses; it needs more money, and more things made by women, to supply to Clarendon Hospital, Red Hospitals, and Recovering Hospitals. I appeal to farmers to send no more than 4¢ a bushel, during the first week in May. Every 4¢ provides one additional hospital bed with the given's name over it. By sending me about $10,000, you would serve your country well, bring relief to yourselves, and make us very proud of you. For the sake of the wounded boys, make the gift substantial. It will be an investment towards the recovery of some Canadian soldier who stood in our stead that our cause might be upheld.

Faithfully your friend
Jas. W. Robertson,
Chairman,
Red Cross Society at Clarendon.

Principal Forde's Father Killed by Electric Shock

The principal of Clarendon public school, J. W. Forde, received the sad news of the sudden death of his father on Tuesday morning in Ontario and he left on the evening train for the east. The only participants of this accident which has been learned are contained in the dispatch which is reprinted below. The sympathy of The Advertiser is extended to Mr. Forde in his bereavement.

Clarendon, Ont., April 27.—(Maine) Forde, of South Falls and Louis Beland, of Clarendon, were killed by an electric shock, this morning, at the foot station of the hydro-electric lines when a laborer came in contact with a high voltage wire. The poleman failed to recognize the fault. Fred Davies a street lamp repairer, was killed.

Mr. Forde, who represents the Bible Society, completed the pulpit of the Methodist Church in the past year's absence last Sunday.

Province Takes Another Progressive Step in Providing for Higher Agricultural Education

Edmonton, Alta., April 30.—George Harecourt, now deputy minister of agriculture for the province, to be assistant to E. A. Horn, head of the new faculty of agriculture at the University of Alberta.

H. A. Craig, now superintendent of demonstration farms, to be deputy minister.

S. G. Carthy, now the assistant to Mr. Craig, to be superintendent of demonstration farms.

These appointments confirmed by order-in-council, this afternoon, were announced tonight by the Hon. Dugald Macdonald, minister of agriculture following the statement made by President Taylor to convocation of the university of Alberta yesterday, that E. A. Horn, principal of the Veterinary School of Agriculture, had been placed in charge of the new faculty of agriculture which has been established at the university.

The university will take only three students who have graduated from the two-year course at the provincial agricultural schools.

Eighteen or twenty students who graduated from the schools this year are ready to take the university course and will therefore form the initial class at the university. It has not yet been decided whether the university course will be for two or for three years.

The course will open up a big field for these students, for after taking their degree of bachelor of science in agriculture, they will be qualified to take positions such as teachers in agricultural schools and colleges and appointments in connection with the department of agriculture and all its branches that require special technical ability, besides positions on agricultural institutions. Up to the present, says Mr. Marshall, the supply has not been equal to the demand in connection with these positions.

HARVEY—BROWN

On Monday, April 19, at the Presbyterian manse, Rev. Wm. McNeill officiating, Sarah Ethel, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Brown, of Willow Creek and William Harvey, of Empress, were married. The groom is homecoming from the war. The bride is a daughter of the late Mrs. McNeill, coming here with them last fall when they returned from their honeymoon. He assisted on the hockey team during the winter and soon well-known among the younger set. The young couple returned to the home of the bride where the wedding dinner was enjoyed. The wedding was a very quiet affair, only immediate relatives of the bride being present. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey will probably go to their honeymoon.

Some Bluffers Themselves

A copy of a German paper published in the States was received by a gentleman here and it contains the remarkable statement in its news columns that nine towns in England have been destroyed by Zeppelins. The wish may be the father of the thought but that does not excuse the deliberate lie which is making the campaign in America for the raising of a pro-German sentiment and woe me if our American friends do not turn the hostilities of the German war effort back in their face in this case.

The Advertiser will be obliged to you if you will stop up and pay up your subscription. No crowding.

L.O.O.F. Visitors Had Goals

Monday was truly Oddfellows' night. A class of 15 candidates took the test and not satisfied with the sleek well-fed Clarendon goat, a degree team from High River and one also from Carmarthen brought each its goat along. The initiative and first degree work was accomplished by the latter team while the former put on the second and third degree work. Reskin holds served lunch after the ceremonies were over. The grand master from Edmonton was present as was also the district deputy grand master, Mr. Miller. (L.O.O.F. 23) A very nice dinner was given by the High River and Carmarthen.

Logan Prior; Sec.-Treas. Morley Hildison; Committee, Tommie Ringrose and John Watt; Captain, Harold Solby. They have a new game from the hockey operations of the winter of about $5 and two boys' canvases netted the $1340.50 and 25c subscriptions. The "good fellows" roll reads: N. Holmes, 1st; D. H. Ramage, R. A. Shearer, N. V.; Geo. Maxwell, M. Fisher, H. Patterson, W. M. Ross, J. O. White, each 50c; Chas. Vason, 40; J. E. Hildebrand, V. Asen, 30; Roy Gledhill, Jim Fraser, T. Bernard, J. Nelson, Hamilton, Stanley Watt, L. S. Shind, Fred Watkins, W. W. Whitten, W. R. Shanks, D. B. Vanderho, J. T. Kingsley, each 25c. The boys' ambitions run to particular sweaters, knickers and football shoes. You were once a football player, may be.

Leaves Police for Front

Constable Poor, of the Mounted Police, who is a special service in the artillery in the old line, has been ordered by the British war office to report for service. He will no doubt receive his free discharge from the Police and expects to be leaving for the front in a couple of weeks. Lucky the soldier who sprang into fame by the slaughter of eight Germans single-handed, is a South of Ireland soldier and was with Constable H. B. Poor in service with the same Irish regiment.

Nailed in Sask.

Reports come to Strine that our old townsman, Dr. Drake, arriving in a small's car, was out at 8 p.m., Saskatchewan. The story goes that he administered to a sick animal and when he told the owner the charges he refused to pay, claiming the fee was exorbitant. Drake became enraged and seized the horse with a knife, trying to kill the animal to spite its owner.—The Strine Dispatch.

Dr. Drake was at residence of this town for a few months and was known as a bad actor.

The council is showing considerable judgment in putting the old cross over the bridge into the scrap heap and replacing them with new ones. It improves the appearance of the streets, improves the temper of the autoist, and removes what might have proved a fatal source of danger suits had accidents occurred.

At Home and Abroad

ARDOR DAY, May 14th.

MOTHER'S DAY, May 9th.

Shall we celebrate these days after this purpose suggested?

Did anyone say "Stories on Victoria Day (or the Patriotic Funds)"?

Germany is now taking measures which will give almost no in the war picture.

J. R. Watt and Mrs. Watt turned from Spokane, Wash, this (Friday) morning.

Mrs. Harrison underwent an operation at Calgary on Monday and is said to be improving.

Made Mother's Day, father's day also. The celebration should not be despised.

C. B. Gray returned from Montana on Saturday. He has not as yet started after selling his property that state some months ago.

J. R. Watt, S. L. Lee, and A. E. Thompson are in Spokane this week, the trial of the case against Clarendon being there being the business. Mrs. Watt accompanied her husband.

A substantial piece of land from the Stewart Ranch was sold to N. H. Sifton, a rancher adjoining this town, on Tuesday of this week. The deal will add considerably to the ranch holdings of Mr. Sifton.

The friends of Mr. F. G. Atkinson, now of Calgary, will be pleased to hear that her son has won the scholarship for his year (first year Applied Science) at the University of Alberta.

Newfoundland will in November have a plebiscite similar to that of Alberta on the prohibition issue and if the anti-prohibition vote, liquor will be barred from the island commencing July 1st, 1916.

W. J. Bryan, who has been the secretary and manager of the Macleod Fair, has resigned and R. J. Sells has been appointed to his stead. The fair has been postponed from the original date which was the first week in August to October 7th and 8th.

An announcement concerning the Canadian situation, from Fraser, appears in this issue. Mr. Fraser would be pleased to show anyone interested the quality of some of the goods of this house from small sized marks. His coils are at the Economy Barn and there these can be seen.

O. S. Longman returned from Vancouver on Wednesday but left out most members for Bior Island were the members causing the were absent. It is thought the boat has been gotten under control in the south and that the change from now on will be very little.

Mr. Russell has joined her husband, the proprietor of the near Lake Farm, who arrived from the States some time ago. Mrs. Russell has been visiting friends in the States since Mr. Russell took possession of the Clear Lake Farm and now has arrived to occupy her new home.

A team belonging to Francis Downie took fright at a cow which came up in front of them and ran with the wagon in which was a new stove, 40 gal. of gasoline, coal and sundries. The scateration is said to have been very complete, both at the wagon and contents. Fortunately no injury was sustained by either driver or horses.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

The press trouble which we have had accounts for the delay in issue. We are negotiating for the replacing of our newspaper press with a more reliable one and I expect to have this department of our activity put on a sound basis as is other departments of our business.

This week has been better wrapper week and we have turned out several thousand of wrappers for those who are making good butter, on which they are not ashamed to place their name.

This "war tax" that is not by any conceivable perverting of facts a war tax, is being evaded by large concerns, which are sending their circulars to be printed in U. S. cities and mailed from these points to Canadian customers at the old rate of postage. Thus, Canadian postal revenue is being lost and the printing and mailing charges are lost to Canadian printers. When one considers the large bulk of postal revenue which comes from the continuous program of circulating letters, howed by the many large manufacturing and distributing concerns of Canada, it is evident how great is the loss occasioned by this retrograde step by the postal department. The man who sends perhaps less than 100 letters a year, pays on extra dollar to postal revenue; the concern which issues say 20,000 circulars per month, by this evasion saves $2,000 in postage and the postal revenue is depleted by double that and if circulars are sealed, by triple that amount.

We publish to-day an appeal on behalf of the Red Cross Society, by Dr. James W. Robertson.

Dr. Robertson is still best known to the farmers of Canada as Professor Robertson. He began his official public service at the Ontario Agricultural College nearly thirty years ago. Twenty-five years ago he went to Ottawa as Dairy Commissioner for the Dominion. The Dairying Service of the Department of Agriculture soon became known and trusted throughout Canada. From Prince Edward Island to Alberta, farmers profited by the illustration Dairy Stations and the Training. Illustrations. The output of cheese and butter in Canada added to the reputation of its rural workers.

Other public services of continuing and growing value were inaugurated, while Professor Robertson was Commissioner of Agriculture. Among them were the Live-Stock Branch, the Cold Storage Service, the Seed Grain Competitions, Trial Shipments of Fruit to the United Kingdom, and Extensions of Markets.

Besides these were the Manual Training Movement, the School Gardens, Household Science, and the Consolidated Rural School.

In more recent years, Dr. Robertson was Chairman of the Royal Commission on Industrial Training and Technical Education, Farmer in all provinces are familiar with the Survey of Farms by the Commission of Conservation and the Illustration Farms of its Committee on Lands, of which he is Chairman.

In these and many other ways, Dr. Robertson has given the farmers of Canada the best that modern life has to offer. He says he is their debtor, for many opportunities, for much kindness and for warm appreciations. But then are his debtors too. And he has recommended them that, for the first time in order to establish his right and privilege to appeal to them for this worthy cause.
